- It is your responsibility to understand the court's or the university's requirements for documenting your community service.
- It is your responsibility to make prior arrangements with each organization where you wish to volunteer and to ask if they are able to meet those documentation requirements.
- The organizations listed here utilize large numbers of volunteers and are open during the evenings and/or weekends. If you are able to perform your community service during the work day, you will find a complete list of volunteer needs on our website.
- This list is meant to serve as a convenient reference. It is not intended to limit the opportunities for service.
- The contact information for the organizations listed is available on our website. www.bloomington.in.gov/volunteer. Please email or phone if you need assistance.
- Many community organizations other than those listed below schedule events which utilize volunteers during the evenings or on weekends. See website for event information.
- To stay abreast of current volunteer needs, we suggest that you peruse the website regularly or subscribe to the Weekly Volunteer Update. See website to subscribe.
- The inclusion of an organization in this list does not imply City endorsement or support of the organization's activities or policies.
